Know Your CLIP

1st Grade Teachers

Mrs. Anna Tsai

- I enjoy cycling and would ride 50 miles for a delicious meal.
- I am a dog person, but currently have two cats and am becoming a cat person too.
- Shandong dialect is my native dialect; I speak Cantonese and Shanghainese.

Ms. Louisa Liang

- I have two dwarf Holland Lop rabbits
- I'm allergic to cats and dogs.
- My favorite food is Korean food.

Mrs. Judy Chen

- Student at Meyerholz when I was in 4th and 5th grade.
- Attended three different elementary schools, two different middle schools, and two different high schools
- During 4th grade at Meyerholz, we had a school-wide reading challenge. I read more than 200,000 pages in a year (Being an EL, that was a challenge). This challenge got me hooked on reading Nancy Drew Mystery books- the old set.

Meyerholz News

Chinese New Year Parade 2022:

The Meyerholz/CLIP San Francisco Chinese New Year Parade Team was started by CLIP parent volunteers in 2004. The parade team is a self-funded and volunteer-run program.

CLIP is planning for the Chinese New Year Parade in Feb 2022. Please stay tuned for more information.
